Imagination

Is a truly amazing thing,
It is a source of constant inspiration ,
With which great change we may bring
It fuels the flames of our desire,
It leads us to innovation and creation,
And brings us ever higher.
Create.
Believe.
Dream.
It creations can give one happiness
Or give them fear
Give one sadness
Or ease their tears
In these wondrous, ever changing, rearranging lands
Comprised of your imagination
You hold all the power in your metaphorical hands
For you are sole master of this never ending nation
Fearlessly Create.
Always Believe.
Infinitely Dream.
Here you can do anything
In this world you take the Helm
You can be
A superhero.
An adventurer.
A warrior.
Or even a King
Nothing is impossible in this invisible realm
As long as you believe
In this intangible space of infinite possibility,
There is almost no limit to what you can achieve.
So remember to fearlessly Create,
Make something totally you
For only we can shape our Fate
And always Believe,
We can make our own choices
So make something new
So advocate, raise your voices
Cause we are not machine
Dream.

For our imagination exists
As a place deep within our minds,
Where our creativity always persists
A incredible place never truly seen.
The origin of creativity,
A place where life experiences, fiction, every thought combines,
To create a brand new reality
In which all our hopes and dreams reside
And with the power of imagination
Destiny is yours to decide
